BAR PLACED ON OPIUM

Federal Government Forbids
Importation.Price of "Hop" Will Go Soaring as Result of the Order.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Acting in pursuance of a recent understanding with President Roosevelt and members of the international opium commission, Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief food and drug inspector of the department of agriculture, issued an order to collectors of Port Francisco station yesterday to prohibit the importation of smoking opium in San Francisco and other ports of the Pacific coast.

No more sweeping order affecting the commerce of the port of San Francisco has been issued in twenty years. Figures of the customs house show that the duty on opium has approximated nearly $1,000,000 a year. As much as $600,000 has been paid in duty on a single shipment, and opium valued between $500,000 and $400,000 is now on its way from China.

Under the new order, Collector Stratton will not permit these shipments to land, and Chinatown has begun to renege itself against the opium famine that it now feels is inevitable.

Imperial Envoy a Crusader.
The presence in this country of Tang Shao Yi, the special envoy who passed through San Francisco en route to Washington a week ago to return thanks for the remission of the Boxer indemnity, is believed to have accelerated the decision of the order by Inspector Wiley. Tang, who was educated in the United States, is one of the most zealous crusaders against the use of opium in the Chinese empire, and has been responsible for the promulgation of many imperial edicts to curb traffic in the drug.

President Roosevelt has been known to be in aggressive sympathy with the propaganda of the international opium commission. When Dr. Hamilton Wright, chairman of the American delegation to the congress that is to meet at Shanghai next January, passed through San Francisco last October he obtained from Charles B. Whittier, secretary of the state board of pharmacy, a report on the use and sale of smoking opium in California. This report showed that during the twelve months previous to last August, 2500 pounds of opium were sold through California dealers for medicinal purposes and 35,000 ounces of morphine and its component salts.

The new order, says Collector Stratton to reject all smoking opium and all other opium containing less than 9 per cent of morphine. It is said there are only 85,000 pounds of opium now in the bonded warehouses of San Francisco, and that amount, with 8000 pounds drawn from the government warehouses yesterday, represents the complete stock of the drug in California.

Opium is brought to San Francisco from Siam, the Portuguese colony of Macao, and Hongkong. It is imported ostensibly for Chinese consumption, but as the Chinese are not permitted to import it in their own names the shipments are handled by the brokerage firm of Iwayne, Hoyt & Co. The new order will mean the loss of thousands of dollars annually to this firm.

Imported opium sells for $12 a pound. It is worth about $8 a pound, and $6 a pound is collected on it in duty.

The order of Inspector Wiley is expected to kille the retail price to fabulous figures and to make the drug literally worth its weight in gold. Smuggling Revival Looked For.
Chinese slaves to the drug will get at any price, and apart from the fact that the order will mean that now available in the market the order is expected to revive the smuggling industry and the exciting escapades linked with the operations of the notorious Cipriotti and Whaley rings.

There is a severe law, according to the federal officials, that prohibits the manufacture or refining of opium in California. A step has also been put to the importation of the drug that has been refined in British Columbia. For this reason the Chinese and white traffickers of the drug will eventually be put to extremes in securing the "hop" and "yon abee," and the order is likely to stimulate smuggling operations to such an extent as to necessitate a great increase in the force of the customs on the Pacific coast. The Chinese and white traffickers, general at San Francisco, said last evening that the new order would be nullified generally by the better class of Chinese in California.

MRS. RUSTIN TELLS OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

Physician States That His Wound
Could Not Have Been Self-Inflicted.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 2.—Two women, Mrs. Rustin and Hannah Dineen, a servant in the Rustin home, were the principal witnesses in the trial today of Charles E. Davis, charged with the murder of Dr. Frederick Rustin. Mrs. Rustin had little difficulty in passing the severe cross-examination of Attorney Gurley, who forced her to identify insurance policies on her husband's life which were incriminating in the event of the person insured committing suicide.

Miss Dineen, however, lost the composure which characterized her testimony at the coroner's inquest and preliminary hearings, and all but collapsed during the direct examination by the state's attorney English and the session of court was suspended for minutes until she recovered herself. Her testimony closely corroborated that of Mrs. Rustin, and in addition she testified to having seen a man who resembled the defendant standing near the Rustin home just before midnight, when she returned from a visit to her sister.

Her testimony was given by Dr. W. H. Laverdier, who performed the autopsy on Dr. Rustin's body. Despite the efforts of Davis' counsel, Dr. Laverdier was permitted to give expert testimony, during which he expressed the opinion that the shot which killed the physician was not self-inflicted.

The court room was filled to suffocation by a crowd that expected to see and hear Mrs. Abbie Rice. She will not give her testimony until tomorrow.

It was the policy of the defense to secure the exclusion of the jury from the trial, and to this end the prosecution upon the defendant in the present trial and in event of failure to do this to endeavor in the cross-examination to create in the minds of the jury the question whether or not Mrs. Rustin had been shot by her husband. Rustin had shot himself in her presence.

When court opened Attorney Gurley, for the defense, asked Mrs. Rustin to produce certain insurance papers on the life of her husband. She said her lawyer had them and would produce them. Mrs. Rustin said she recalled but two nights during the two weeks from the time of her return from a visit out of town until the night of his death, when Dr. Rustin was home all night.

The desired life insurance policies having been brought into court and identified by the witness, it was proposed by the defense to show that the policies contained provisions making them incontestable except for non-payment of premiums. The prosecution objected to introducing this matter as a part of its case. Rustin's testimony, so it was determined.

Dr. Millard Langfield, who was a neighbor of Dr. Rustin and was called by Mrs. Rustin soon after the shooting of her husband, testified that the defendant came approximately twenty minutes of four o'clock in the afternoon, received the impression that it was Mrs. Rustin talking. He could not account for the impression.

After describing the condition in which he found Dr. Rustin, he said: "I asked Mrs. Rustin if she did this 'shoot' and she answered that she had shot a shot and found her husband outside. Nothing more was said on the subject."

During cross-examination the defense tried to bring out that from motives of delicacy the witness refrained from inquiring at the time, but the objections of the prosecution were sustained.

SUICIDE DIRECTED BURIAL OF ASHES

Disbelieved in Future World and Forbade Holding of Funeral Over Her Grave.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Dec. 2.—The body of Mrs. Eleanor Merron Cowper, the actress and author, who fatally shot herself on Friday at the St. Regis hotel in New York City, where her death occurred last night, will be cremated tomorrow. The remains will be deposited in a cemetery in this city where are interred the ashes of James Wallack, her closest friend, who committed suicide on May 1st last, and the remains of her husband. Arrangements for cremation of Mrs. Cowper's body were made in deference to a request to a letter addressed to her attorney. In the letter she said:

"When you get the crematorium to open it, place the ashes directly in the ground. There need be only a small bit of turf removed and a little digging. You place the ashes in the ground and fill it up. I hope the ground is not frozen too hard. I will send the ashes in a tin box of the shelf. Don't wire my people. I have written. That is all that is necessary. Let there be no services. If what I have done for others in my life time is not sufficient endorsement for the world to come, let there be one which I don't believe, then no hummering at the gates of a professional puppet who knows no more about it than I do, is going to make any difference."

The services tomorrow will be brief. The services representatives here of the suicide were said tonight to possess letters showing that Mrs. Cowper made a suicide pact with Wallack. The attorneys refused to make public the text of the letters.

AUTOISTS DENY ANY INTENTION TO ROB

Say They Took Companion's Valuables to Satisfy the Scruples of the Chauffeur.

SAN JOSE, Cal., Dec. 2.—The quarter of autoists who are accused of having drugged and robbed R. B. Elder of the Allis-Chalmers Pumping Company of $400 and valuable personal effects, after having whisked him off from a hotel in San Francisco in an automobile to Santa Clara, are still in the county jail, but are expected to be released today. He asserts that he was not with the party when they started out with Elder, but was invited to join them when they stopped at a drinking place after having left San Francisco.

Carmen's home at present is in Oakland, where his mother is engaged in business. He said he was not acquainted with any of the men in the automobile, but that he accepted their invitation to "take a little ride." Justice of the Peace Klenningman of Santa Clara has reduced his bail to $200. The three men, however, today morning strenuously deny that they intended to rob Elder, declaring that he was too drunk to know what he was doing and that they took possession of his check and valuables to keep him from losing them, and to satisfy the chauffeur, who was afraid they would spend all their money on drinks and have nothing left with which to pay him. Their preliminary examination will be held on the 15th inst.

HAS BEEN KAISER FOR SIXTY YEARS

Francis Joseph's People Celebrate His Notable Anniversary by Much Festivity

VIENNA, Dec. 2.—The dual empire celebrated today the diamond jubilee of the accession of Francis Joseph to the throne. His Majesty became emperor of Austria and king of Hungary December 2, 1848, on the abdication of his uncle, Ferdinand I.

Masses and special to deum services in the cathedral and the churches of Vienna marked the beginning of the period of festivity. His Majesty attended the service in the Hofburg chapel. He drove to the chapel through the streets in an open carriage, accompanied by the members of the imperial household. He was greeted everywhere with cheers from the people who crowded the streets, coming from all parts of the empire to be present at the ceremonies.

Observance at Washington.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Solemn and impressive services, attended by thousands of church and state, were held today, commemorating the sixtieth anniversary of Emperor Francis Joseph's accession to the throne as ruler of Austria-Hungary.

The distinguished assemblage in St. Patrick's Catholic church formed a striking picture. President Roosevelt, Vice President Fairbanks, members of the United States Supreme Court, members of the cabinet, members of congress and members of the diplomatic corps were present. The vast nave being filled in their court costumes and uniforms.

His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Falconer assisted in the high mass which was celebrated by Mr. Bernard J. Ceresa, pastor of St. Patrick's church. Rev. Charles M. Bart and Rev. Deacon Rev. J. D. Marr. Rev. Dr. William T. Russell, rector of St. Patrick's church, read the sermon.

For the occasion the edifice was brilliantly decorated with flowers and ferns and the national flag of the United States and Austria-Hungary. Sixty years ago today Emperor Francis Joseph ascended the throne and with the exception of Queen Victoria, his reign has been the longest of any monarch in Europe.

WIDOW TELLS STORY OF RUSTIN'S DEATH

Jury Is Completed in Omaha for Trial of Unique and Sensational Murder Case.

OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 1.—It took less than an hour today to complete the jury that will try Charles F. Davis for the alleged murder of Frederick Rustin, and presentation of the case was finished by the attorneys at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Two witnesses, both women, including the widow of the dead physician, were placed on the stand this afternoon.

Mrs. R. J. Fisher, who lives directly across from the Rustin home, and who heard the shot and witnessed from her window the struggle of Mrs. Rustin to get her husband from the porch into the house, developed nothing new.

Mrs. Rustin made an interesting witness. Attired in a widow's garb, with a long flowing veil, which formed a background for her pale face, she quietly showed alertness in replying to questions in a manner which would tend to disprove the suicide theory and gave her evidence in an impressive and convincing way.

She was frank in her explanations and while telling of her husband's success as a physician and surgeon, and of her suffering during her husband's examination she easily avoided falling into traps set for her by counsel for the defense, and she was still under his searching cross-examination when court adjourned for the day.

County Attorney English, in his statement, told the story of the killing of Dr. Frederick T. Rustin on the porch of his home in the early hours of September 2, 1908. He followed this with the story told by Mrs. Abbie Rice of her relations with Dr. Rustin and the suicide pact that was alleged to have been made, but which failed owing to her lack of nerve and his statement to her later that he had killed himself. He also stated that he secured the services of Charles E. Davis in carrying out the suicide pact. When English completed his statement, Judge Sear ordered that the jury be kept together.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The attorneys for former Mayor Eugene F. Schmitz, who was called to appear before Superior Judge Dunne after Wm. J. Dineen, one of Schmitz's bondsmen, had become embarrassed by financial troubles, were not ready to furnish a continued, with the consent of the court, for another week.

MAKING THE EYES LAST

Good glasses not only place the eyes in good condition for present work, but also preserve them to meet the demands that the future will make. Poor glasses injure the sight now and render the future a time of eye-sight troubles and misery.

The greatest eye-help, the greatest eye-preserver of modern times is the Kryptok, the glass we have been making for more than five years and steadily advertising as the best glass of its character that the world ever saw.

Wear Kryptoks and you can read fine print and see fine stitches. You can look across the room or down the street with complete comfort, no matter what your age may be. Yet no cement is used in their construction, no pieces pasted on, no lines disfigure the face. They do not resemble the old-style far-and-near glasses. A certificate of genuineness goes with every pair.

MAY THINK OVER PACKERS' OFFER

Selling Committee May Confer With Growers.

To Consider Any Price Named—And May Sell Independently.

This morning at 10 o'clock the selling committee of the raisin pool and the packers will meet again, at the Forsyth building, for the purpose of conferring in regard to the sale of the goods held in the pool. The selling committee wants four cents for standard goods, but it is understood that if this cannot be gotten, any proposition which the packers will make will be taken under advisement, and submitted to the growers. It is thought probable that the packers will talk on a basis of about 2 1/2 cents per pound, sweetest.

A dozen or more invitations were sent out the other day to heads of packing firms to be present at the meeting of today. It is desired to confer with the heads of the firms rather than with the local representatives, as more direct action can be taken, as a whole, is done. The meeting will be held behind closed doors, as was the former conference, which resulted in no agreement being reached.

WHAT CAUSES DYSPEPSIA?

And Incidentally Constipation, Coated Tongue, Nervousness, Headache, and Other Symptoms.

Did you ever know that the stomach is a churn? That just as soon as you are done eating, the healthy stomach commences to roll the food around, and mixes it thoroughly with the juices of the stomach?

And did you know, dear reader, that if the stomach is run down or flabby, so that it cannot do the churning, that dyspepsia is the result?

If the food is not churned, it lays heavily on your stomach, turns sour, and causes all kinds of distressing symptoms, such as headache, coated tongue, constipation, etc.

And so, an every physician will tell you, the way to cure dyspepsia is to fix the churn, or in other words, build up the stomach, so that it will properly mix the food.

If you have dyspepsia and want to get rid of it before it gets rid of you, go to San Joaquin Drug Co., the druggists, and get a large box of Mi-o-na tablets. The cost is only 50 cents, and every reader of the Republican is welcome to his or her money back if Mi-o-na does not cure.

Why You Should Use American Block Coal in Your Kitchen Stove

Did you ever notice that when your draft is open your coal never heats the oven?

Coal, requiring forced draft, forces the heat up the chimney instead of allowing it to circulate around the oven.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—The examination of Madame Adolph Steinhil, suspected of complicity in the murder of her husband and mother, in this city last May, was continued today.

The whole sordid story of this woman's life, whereby for years, with her husband's knowledge and connivance, she kept up an appearance of luxury before the world, has now been told and this afternoon Madame Steinhil was cross questioned only with regard to the murders.

The examination is being conducted in secret.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—The body of Mrs. Jap. Mme. Steinhil's mother, was examined today. A preliminary medical examination showed that the spleen was intact. This fact tends to prove that Mrs. Jap's death was not due to strangulation, as appeared when the body was discovered.

STANDARD OIL STORY

Archbold Tells More of the Trust's Financiering.

Laws of New Jersey Very "Reasonable" Toward Such Combines.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—The processes through which the Standard Oil trust was liquidated and its thirty subsidiary companies brought under control of the present Standard Oil company of New Jersey were developed in the Archbold declaration today by John D. Archbold, under cross-examination in the federal suit to dissolve the Standard Oil company.

Archbold declared that the trust had been liquidated in the period of years from 1892 to 1899 with all good faith to obey the mandates of the Ohio supreme court ordering the trust to be dissolved. There was no ulterior motive in the fact that only about 51 per cent of the trust certificates were liquidated into the stocks of the subsidiary companies, said Archbold.

Small holders declined to liquidate, preferring to retain their certificates, which had a market value, rather than to obtain infinitesimally small parts in the several minor companies.

Archbold made it plain under a series of questions from government counsel that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey had been the result of the building company because the laws of New Jersey were reasonable in their treatment of corporations. All the holders of trust certificates, after obtaining their pro rata shares in the subsidiary companies, turned them in to the New Jersey company and received their proportionate amount of stock. The Standard Oil company of New Jersey, the present holding company, is the combination which the government is seeking to dissolve.

During the day Kellogg, for the government, succeeded in throwing light on the means by which the Standard Oil company of New Jersey was produced by Mr. Archbold. Kellogg testified that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey was produced by Mr. Archbold. Kellogg testified that the Standard Oil company of New Jersey was produced by Mr. Archbold.

Destroying Competition.
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—When cross-examination of John D. Archbold was resumed today, Kellogg, for the government, was asked about the percentage of business done by the Standard Oil company in 1899, but said he could only state that it was large. Kellogg called the attention of the witness to the evidence several years ago of H. H. Rogers, then in the Standard Oil company, that Kellogg had received 55 per cent of the refined oil manufactured.

"If you had that amount of production you still say, as stated by you yesterday, that you acquired the plants on the seaboard to increase your volume of business?"

"I cannot say what percentages of business we were doing."

Kellogg was seeking to show that in reality the Standard did not purchase certain seaboard refineries to increase the Standard's business, but to destroy competition. The government prosecutor plied the witness with many questions to develop this contention.

Buyers New Business.
Kellogg read a statement, purporting to give the percentage of domestic business of the Standard between 1894 and 1898, which averaged about 50 per cent.

Kellogg endeavored to show that the Standard, instead of developing its own efforts to develop its own business, in that way increased its own business.

Archbold said that J. C. Sibley organized the Standard Oil of Indiana, and General Charles Miller developed the Galena Oil company.

Later the Standard bought into both companies and combined them as the Galena Signal Oil company, which continued under the direction of Sibley and Miller, both of whom held minority interests in the company.

Archbold said that in 1880 he had acquired control of the Empire Refining company and held the stock for the benefit of the Standard's stockholders.

Archbold said he did not know the names of the individuals who held the stocks of the various smaller companies before the agreement of 1879. He said he did not know whether the owners of the minor companies had been taken into the Standard as owners or not.

A Trifle of Fourteen Millions.
"Not a trifle," said Kellogg, "that the balance sheet of the trustees showed the valuation of the plants was $15,000,000, for which $70,000,000 in certificates were issued."

"I don't know anything about the balance sheet," replied the witness. Kellogg tried to develop the fact that the book value of the various plants had been set down as $70,000,000 at the time of the organization of the trust and later said $14,000,000 was the correct value of the National Transit company.

Mr. Archbold said he understood the book value to be $15,000,000 and the actual value $70,000,000.

BITTER ELECTION FIGHT IN ATLANTA

Mayor Is Defeated By Young Banker After Contest Which Involved Street Rioting.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 2.—Robert L. Maddox was elected mayor of Atlanta today by a majority of more than 2,000 votes over James G. Woodard, regular Democratic nominee and twice mayor of the city. Maddox carried every ward except the third and fifth.

This was the most unusual and exciting campaign Atlanta has ever experienced. Although Woodard was declared the nominee at the Democratic primary election held in September, he did not receive the support of the Democratic machine in the city. Maddox, a proponent of the city's improvement, at a popular mass meeting on November 15, Bitter personalities were injected into the campaign and at times the demonstrations on the streets were such as to alarm the police department. Finally calling forth a doubling of the force until after the election. Election day passed off quietly.

Mr. Maddox is vice-president of the American Bank and a young man of wealth.

COUNT DON'S CASE IS SCORED

and all when he reached the subject of the fashion in which he had dissipated his wife's fortune, spending at the rate of $1,000,000 a year for eleven years.

"So long as this money was forthcoming," M. Clemenceau said, "the count considered his wife upright and honorable." When Mrs. Gould was married to De Castellane she had a yearly income of $200,000. During her married life, with what countess characterized as his "boundless follies," the sum of $10,000,000 had been spent. When she got her divorce from the count, there existed debts amounting to $3,400,000 in addition to the sum of $25,000 that had been given to the Marquis and Marquise De Castellane. "This is the man," cried Clemenceau, "who wants his children educated like a De Castellane. A man without a profession, who married for money and then devoted himself to dissipating his wife with his wife's money."

Continuing, Clemenceau revealed the exact terms of the settlement his client offered to make at the time of her divorce. There the count refused on the ground that they were insufficient and in so doing, said counsel, he proved himself eligible for an insane asylum.

These terms were $500,000 in cash and an income of $20,000 a year, the income to be increased when the estate of his former wife was out of the hands of the trustees, she to take over all the debts then pending.

A Question of Gratitude.
Clemenceau then rallied at the count for repudiating De Sagan with having two mistresses. "The count," he said, "had more than two when he married Miss Gould. The count also accused De Sagan with ingratitude because he (the count) had once loaned him $12,000. 'Where did the money come from?' asked the lawyer. 'Why, from Anna Gould, who is now the Princess De Sagan.'"

Referring to the divorce proceedings, M. Clemenceau charged that the words of the decree obtained by the countess, that "the husband had entertained relations with women of easy morals," did not constitute the basis for the countess's charge. As a proof that the suit was not brought because of the count's solicitude for his children and that the Marquise De Castellane did not desire their custody, M. Clemenceau called attention to the fact that the Marquise De Castellane had not come forward as a party to the action.

Just an Americanism.
M. Clemenceau took up one by one the accusations made against the princess by the count regarding her travels in Italy with De Sagan before their marriage. It should be remembered, the lawyer declared, that the princess was not a young girl traveling with her fiancé, but a divorced woman in the company of the man she was going to marry. Furthermore she is an American, Clemenceau said. "Conduct that would appear to be out of the count's head, France," he said, "is perfectly proper on the other side of the ocean."

Dismissing the charges brought against the princess and Madame Gould while they were in New York, M. Clemenceau called the more serious charge of misconduct at Versailles. He admitted that De Sagan had stepped out of Madame Gould's window in the Hotel Des Reservoirs at 11 o'clock in the morning, but he pointed out that this was not the window of her room, but of her study and that the salon was situated on the ground floor of the hotel it was quite natural for the prince to emerge into the garden by way of the tall window that in French houses often serves as a door.

He called attention to the fact that the countess, on the other hand, indicated that De Sagan had conducted himself improperly at Versailles. Such an intimation was infinitely false and it was likewise untrue that De Sagan had occupied a room in the Chateau de Versailles on the same floor as that of the countess's apartment. It was true that De Sagan had rented a villa at Bellevue under an assumed name, but this was something he had a perfect right to do.

Should be Trained to Work.
M. Clemenceau pleaded that the boys he left under the affectionate care of their mother, where they could receive an American education like the children of George J. Gould—that is, to be taught to work.

"In spite of the large fortune these children will inherit," said the lawyer, "they must be taught to work. It would not be idle, if they do nothing good or useful they will run a great risk of doing something bad. The count should affirm the possibility of confiding these three children to their father or grandmother—in a word, to the person who would teach them that the ideal of a man is to receive an allowance from his divorced wife."

The lawyer then read a series of letters from the tutor of the children, showing that when the count was at home, before he was divorced, they never saw him except at meals, and they were then made to listen to unbecoming language.

"Yet, the man who brings this unjust, cruel and infamous suit," M. Clemenceau said with a sneer, "charges that he entertains esteem and admiration for his former wife."

In conclusion, M. Clemenceau gave many instances of the tender motherly solicitude of the princess, instancing the fact that she had arranged to receive four telegrams a day about her children when she went to London to be buried in the family vault.

When M. Clemenceau had finished it was announced that the case would go over to December 30th, when M. Dumortier will speak for De Sagan and M. Roussie for George Gould, who as trustee of his sister's estate, is a party to the suit.

PINE BLUFF MAY ESCAPE DISASTER

Water Is Still Rising in Arkansas River, But There Is Hope of Banks Holding

PINE BLUFF, Ark., Dec. 2.—A more hopeful feeling prevailed in this city tonight, when river authorities presented that the crest of the high water would pass by tomorrow night. It is believed that the water will reach one foot over the previous flood stage. The situation tonight is distinctly better, and if the fashions or willow mattresses held until Thursday night the worst danger will be over.

The north bank of the river caved rapidly today, giving relief to the south bank of Pine Bluff and the swift current is not striking the endangered ground with such force as formerly. The courthouse and Berlin's stable are now the principal danger points. A part of the stable collapsed late today, and the rushing waters are encroaching upon the remaining portion of the building. All inmates were carried from the courthouse. The situation in the rear of the hotel is less serious, as the water level and the building are maintained that this structure will be saved.

BANK ROBBERS ESCAPE IN AUTO

Massachusetts Institution Is Blown Open By Dynamite Early in the Morning.

PEPPERELL, Mass., Dec. 2.—Fourteen thousand dollars in cash was secured by burglars, who early today blew open the vault of the First National bank here. The three men and a girl, who were in the work, were performed has convinced the police that the burglars were professionals. Three men were in the party, and although they were seen entering an automobile, all trace of them was soon lost. The bank vault was blown open about 2 o'clock, at which time the last of three explosions was heard by Ernest Tarbell, who was sleeping next door. Tarbell armed himself with a revolver and started to investigate, only to find the door of his own house barred outside. He succeeded in breaking open his door and reached the bank just as the robbers were leaving in an automobile.

After shouting an alarm, Tarbell fired several shots at the burglars, but there is no indication that any of them took effect. A quantity of rifle and silver scattered about the vault gave evidence of the hurry with which the burglars secured their booty. A large quantity of gold stored in one of the interior recesses of the safe was untouched save for a single $100 coin which was missing. In the morning the robbers were seen in the bank vault, the burglars took the precaution of barring the street doors of all the buildings in the vicinity. The first two explosions were so effectively muffled that the noise was heard only a short distance from the bank, but apparently the burglars became excited and in preparing for the third explosion neglected to take precautions.

WOMAN STRUCK DOWN BY ROBBER

OAKLAND, Dec. 2.—Struck on the head with the butt of a revolver and rendered unconscious in her own bedroom by a masked robber, Mrs. Mary McLeod of 1761 Twelfth street was made the victim of a daring daylight burglary this afternoon. While she lay unconscious on the floor the burglar rifled her purse, which contained $12, and deposited her gold watch from her corsage. He then made his escape by way of the front door, walking out as though he had been a caller.

Mrs. McLeod had just returned from the bank, where she had drawn the money and it is believed by the police that her assailant followed her home.

Two Highwaymen Arrested.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—Two men arrested last night by Detectives Ragan and Connelley were charged today with the part that took a rack of cash containing $100 from J. C. Peterson, a grocer, on Landon street Saturday afternoon. The men accused of the robbery are Martin Gales and Phil Maguire. Part of the stolen money was found upon them.

"THE PROOFS"

What backs is there for the statement that there has been no real treatment for kidney disease?

The medical term for kidney disease is NEPHRITIS, which means inflammation of the kidneys and all the organs that are connected with kidney inflammation.

But there are many kidney medicines so-called, and many people with kidney trouble get well.

Because it commonly gets well at first.

Medical writers now declare that kidney disease develops so unconsciously that, as a rule, it is far advanced before it is discovered (see "Medical Brief," p. 802).

They admit that in the secondary stage they have no specific for it (see same authority, same page).

That this is true is also shown by the enormous growth of the census deaths from kidney disorders—now over 110 per day.

How then can any of the old-time kidney medicines be considered "cures?"

GREAT ACTIVITY IN AND ABOUT COALINGA

Big Building Boom Improving the Town Greatly.

Much Doing in the Oil Fields—Citizens to Vote on Improvements.

COALINGA, Cal., Dec. 2.—A large amount of work is under way here now. The Pleasant Valley Hotel company have their building on the corner of D and Fifth streets well under way. The frame is up for the third story, the roof is being laid. It is a nice structure and will add to the general appearance of the town. A. F. May, incorporated, have their two-story brick structure on Front street nearing completion. Two of the stores and the second story are rented.

A monster pile of brick on Front street near Fourth street tells of another two-story building. A skating rink is being built at Fourth and D streets, where young and old will find winter amusement. Blocks of cement sidewalks give the town a very city-like appearance. A. E. Webb is getting on well with his brick building, the basement to the House Furnishing Store is complete and the side walls are building. The numerous neat cottages going up about the North and west side of town suggest something of the growth the place is making.

The City Trustees, in their efforts to sew the town, have had a competent engineer to make an estimate of the cost, which is put at $35,000.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in South Africa.

South Africa within the last few years has gained more prominence, perhaps than in all its past history. Its rich diamond mines have won for it an enviable reputation. Its native uprisings excite sympathy everywhere, while the Boer war, the effect of which will be felt for a long time to come, was looked upon with mixed emotions, the world cheering or mourning, according to the interests involved. During these critical times, its commerce was crippled, supplies were scarce and only staple articles were shipped there. Among these were Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It was sent there in large quantities, as its reputation for usefulness and reliability had already been established. Mr. B. Schneider, of Kofffontein, Orange River Colony, shows by the following letter that this medicine is still held in high esteem. He says: "I thank you for your good Cough Remedy. I used it for myself and three children when we had had coughs and it helped us. Every family should keep it at hand."

CHILD FATALLY HURT IN HORSE'S STALL

Little Fellow Wandered from Mother's Side.

Sanger and Selma High Schools to Play Exhibition Game at Exeter.

SANGER, Dec. 2.—Monday afternoon the 3-year-old son of Alex Telchick was fatally hurt by a horse. While Mrs. Telchick was in the house the little fellow slipped out without her noticing him and found his way to the stable, where he toddled into the stall where the horse was tied. Soon the family missed him and after a search found him lying on the stable floor unconscious. Whether the horse kicked him or stepped on him is not known. Dr. Presley, who was called in immediately, gave little hope of saving the child's life.

The football teams of Sanger and Selma High schools are going to play an exhibition game at the Citrus Fair in Exeter on Saturday. They are not going to play for the football trophy, though, until about Christmas. The ball should have gone to the winning side Thanksgiving day, but that was a game.

For the last few weeks there have been occasional cases of diphtheria and last week there were so many that the trustees of the grammar school thought it best to close the school. Several of the cases were traced to the school. But Monday morning school began again. Although there were several very serious cases, none of them have been fatal, and all those who are still under the doctor's care are reported as doing nicely.

Miss Ruth Ballard, who has been in Millwood for the last few weeks visiting her sister, Mrs. Albert Walton, returned to Sanger Saturday.

A move that means much for the comfort and convenience of the people of Sanger was begun last week when a few citizens of the town started a subscription for the purpose of building a sidewalk from the depot to the opposite business corner.

This is certainly a good plan, because in the winter it is very hard to cross from the railroad to town and it seems as though it will be accomplished because in a very short time quite a sum had been promised.

T. O. Thorne and family expect to move to Fresno to spend the winter. Mrs. Frank Blaw of Fresno is here visiting her sister, Mrs. James Arthur. Miss Gertrude Dewey and brother, Stephen, were visiting relatives in Hanford and Lemons last week.

Miss Barrett, one of the High school teachers, spent Thanksgiving visiting her parents in Palo Alto.

Mrs. Belle Mead is in Fresno this week, visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. T. Walker, and Mrs. G. A. McLaughlin of Fowler were in Sanger Sunday visiting Mr. McLaughlin's parents.

The several packing houses of the town are running full force now, and many girls have found employment. E. V. Dewey, editor of the Hanford Daily Journal, and wife visited at the home of his brother, E. P. Dewey, last week.

The Record Oil company, section 22-19-15, will spud in well No. 4 this week. The rig is in line shape and work will be pushed.

The Lorine Oil company, section 12-19-15, has well No. 1 about 2900 feet deep with 8 inch casing. Formation is very favorable for a well.

Paul Hontzsch, formerly with the Caribou Oil company, is now with the American Petroleum company.

JUDGES ARE NAMED FOR POULTRY SHOW

Ben Woodhull and David Larson Will Officiate—Good Prospects for Show.

Has Raised a Continental Wave of Admiration. It Is Only Enduring Drama Dealing With the Earth. Life of Christ.

Judges for the poultry show, which is to be held here in December, have just been chosen. Ben Woodhull of Stockton and David Larson of Turlock being picked as the men who will award the prizes for all kinds of fowl shown. Entries for birds are coming in, and it is expected, from present indications, that a better showing will be made by outside communities than at any show in the past.

Ben Woodhull has been here twice in the past as a judge, and is well known. Mr. Larson is a new arrival from Nebraska, where he has officiated a great number of times at big shows. He was a judge at the Nebraska state shows in 1901, 1902, 1903 and 1904, and at the Nebraska state fairs on three occasions. At the state shows, 2000 to 4000 birds were shown, and the fact that he was picked for several years in succession, is taken as indicating his ability in this line of work. He also acted a number of times in the capacity of judge at lesser shows in Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas.

More inquiry than usual has been gotten from the outside, and 300 or more premium lists have been mailed by request to outlying places. A number of entries are in, and a better representation from other towns is confidently looked for this season.

Robert Venn, who is judge at the Tulare show, is expected to secure a number of entries there for the Fresno show. He would have been chosen as one of the judges for the occasion here, but he had previously accepted an engagement to judge at Petaluma, at a date which conflicted with that of the local show, and so he could not act.

A better pigeon display than usual is looked for this year. Better coops will be provided for the birds.

There is going to be some difficulty in finding a show place, as all of the buildings in Fresno are well occupied. A tent may possibly be used, or even a stand taken at Recreation park, though this is far out and not considered as desirable.

FALLING OFF IN RECEIPT OF HAY

Supply in City Cut Off to Maintain Market Rates. Prices Generally Continue at Same Average Range as for Weeks.

Arrivals of hay on the San Francisco market for the week ended on Tuesday are shown in the following schedule of Somers & Co.

Wednesday, 27 cars, 3 boats; Thursday, no market; Friday, 25 cars, 2 boats; Saturday, 37 cars, 5 boats; Monday, 60 cars, 2 boats; Tuesday, 11 cars, no boat.

Somers & Co.'s circular says there has been a marked diminution in hay shipments during the week, total arrivals amounting to 3080 tons in comparison with 3820 last week and 3750 for the week preceding that. Operators have been compelled to cut down the supply somewhat in order to maintain prices, which showed a tendency to decline five or six days ago. It must generally be admitted that country stocks did not warrant such heavy shipments to this market, and as hay should be marketed judiciously and conservatively because of the light supply, the curtailment of shipments will be a wise and proper move. Should prices decline under too heavy arrivals, it would give many the false impression that the reported hay shortage was a myth and encourage them to be extravagant and careless.

Each dealer establishes some little change on different grades of hay according to the supply and demand for that particular quality on the day in question, but prices, generally speaking, continue along at the same average range as has been quoted for two or three weeks.

Tuesday's market prices were as follows:

Choice wheat hay $20.00 @ $22.00
Good wheat hay 18.00 @ 19.50
Other grades same 16.00 @ 17.50
Wheat and oat 15.00 @ 16.00
Tame and oat 15.00 @ 16.00
Wild oat 14.00 @ 15.00
Stock hay 11.00 @ 12.00
Alfalfa 11.00 @ 12.00
Straw, per bale 60¢ @ 75¢

THIRD DEGREE FOR MME. STEINHIL

Accused Murderess Is Undergoing a Severe Cross Examination of Two Days.

PARIS, Dec. 1.—Madame Steinhil, suspected of the murder of her husband last May, was examined at length today by Magistrate Andrew at the palace of justice. The interrogation will continue for two days and the magistrate will decide from the evidence whether the "contradiction" of the Steinhil will be necessary.

In order to avoid any demonstration the woman was removed in a closed van at day light from the St. Lazare prison to the palace of justice.

Mme. Steinhil was subjected to a grueling cross examination during the morning session, but the greatest secrecy regarding what transpired is being observed.

The ministry of justice is conducting a parallel investigation in the handling of the case up to several days ago by Magistrate Leydett. When Premier Clemenceau insisted upon knowing what M. Leydett's relations with Mme. Steinhil had been, the magistrate said to him:

"I loved Mme. Steinhil profoundly but not unlawfully."

PARIS, Dec. 1.—The examination of Mme. Steinhil, which dealt entirely with the married life of the Steinhils, elicited the fact that the artist and his wife were always in financial straits, despite the prosperity which Mme. Steinhil received from her numerous admirers. She admitted that the relations between herself and husband were strained almost from the first.

It is learned that the glasses which were chosen by the Steinhil for analysis were not those used by M. Steinhil and Mme. Jany on the night of the murder. These were broken by a clumsy policeman.

BEN HUR AS BIBLICAL PLAY

Has Raised a Continental Wave of Admiration. It Is Only Enduring Drama Dealing With the Earth. Life of Christ.

Many stories have been written and many plays produced dealing with the earth-life of Christ, but the most impressive religious romance and the only enduring drama dealing with this subject has been General Lew Wallace's "Ben Hur," which is to be offered at the Barton, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 21, 22 and 23. In addition to the evening performances there will be a special matinee on Wednesday.

This fine romance, with all the brilliant pageantry, the barbarity and the intense religious enthusiasm of that period of the world's history, when and into dramatic form, raised a wave of admiration from the Atlantic to the Pacific, for Klaw & Erlanger's colossal production of Wallace's Biblical story is the most majestic and imposing drama ever staged. It is a fascinating, masterly creation that ought to be seen at least once, more people want to see it more than once, for it interests the eye, touches the intellect and moves the heart.

From the prelude, with its mystic charm, to the last awe-inspiring scene on the Mount of Olives, it is pictorially magnificent, its story intensely interesting, and its accompanying music satisfying. Into pieces of strange customs, strange peoples and strange beauty the spectators are led, and the return to the accustomed environment and habits comes almost as a shock after three hours of fascinating wandering and spiritual exaltation.

A clearer idea of the Holy Land and its inhabitants and of the influence of the Nazarene while on earth is obtained from this one drama than can be had from reading countless books upon the subject. Such a drama is not only absorbingly interesting but in the highest degree instructive as well.

Nine years have elapsed since Wallace's impressive Biblical spectacle, "Ben Hur," was first presented at the Broadway theater in New York City. At that time it was considered the largest production of the modern stage, and during the intervening years it has maintained its pre-eminent position in American amusements. The production this season, on a scale of colossal grandeur, replacing all former efforts of its producers, who have taken advantage of the vast resources at their command in constructing the new production. Every art of the customer, the stage mechanic, the electrician, the task of it is perfection. It is realism up to the minute, accomplishing pictures that in the period of its first presentation would have been deemed too difficult to essay.

In order to take care of out-of-town patrons for "Ben Hur" Manager Robert C. Barton will fill mail orders in accordance with date of their receipt, when accompanied by remittance. The scale of prices will range from 50 cents to $2.00. Seats will go on sale Thursday, December 17.

VICTIM IS DRUGGED RELIEVED OF CHECK

Chauffeur Gives Way on Robbers Who Used His Machine to Kidnap Drummer.

SAN JOSE, Dec. 1.—One of the most sensational robberies ever reported to the local authorities was told today by "Doc" Hanson, a chauffeur employed by the Pioneer Garage of San Francisco and resulted in the arrest in Santa Clara of Frank Martin, son of ex-Captain of Police Martin of San Francisco, J. Hall, E. H. Carmer and E. Matchell. The men are accused of drugging R. B. Elder, western representative of the Allis-Chalmers Pump Company in a San Francisco car and bringing him to Santa Clara in an automobile, on the way relieving him of a check for $375. The check was found in their possession.

Hanson became suspicious of the actions of his passengers and stopped the automobile which was headed for Watsonville at Santa Clara and called for assistance. The accused men are in the Santa Clara county jail here charged with grand larceny.

Stockton Has Been Won
Over to Organized Ball

ATHLETICS

HAS CY MOREING BEEN WON
OVER FOR ORGANIZED BALL?Stockton Magnate Is Lone Member of Committee
Strong For Anti-Outlawry—Prosperous
Season For State League Reported.

President A. B. Evans and Secretary W. F. Toomey of the Fresno club, who were in attendance at the big meeting of the directors of the California State League in San Francisco Tuesday night, have not returned from the scene of the "high jinks" as yet, but according to the published reports of the session in the Fresno press, the conference was a tame affair as far as arguments on the organized or outlaw baseball proposition for next season is concerned.

The only startling disclosure, according to the Call, was that Stockton had been won over to a certain extent from the heretofore firm stand Cy Moreing has taken for a continuation of outlaw ball.

It has been thought all along by some of the fans that Moreing was only holding out in order not to give the impression to the Coast League "big four" that every director in the State League is anxious to jump the traces of outlawry. If Cal Evans, Danny Long and Ben Berry thought that all was harmony in the outlaw business for organized ball next season, the California League could not get the concessions they want from the national commission.

Another reason no doubt why Cyrus held back was that he wanted to retain Hal Chase next year, while on the other hand several fans who claim to have the inside track, state that Moreing would be glad to get Chase off his hands. A sort of white elephant for a magnate in this league.

However, Moreing is known to be a broad-minded club manager, and if he should receive a square deal from the Coast League and the national commission, he would be as willing to come into the fold as the other members of the committee.

In speaking of the supposed winning over of Cy Moreing, the Call says:

It developed last night that the champion Stockton club, the main factor in the fight against organized ball, was willing to join hands with the others, provided it retained its players. This will be a complicated question to decide and will require all the strategy and executive ability of Johnson, the greatest man in baseball today.

Through the officials of the outlaw league have not confirmed the rumor, it is likely that the Oakland, San Francisco and Alameda clubs will be dropped next season, leaving five clubs in the field. If this action is taken it will be necessary to add another club to the circuit in order to bring six clubs into the league.

It was the sense of last night's meeting to carry on the war if the big league officials refuse to allow a outlaw league to keep the men they have on their payrolls, provided the latter do not express a willingness to go to the National and American league clubs which have put in claims for their services in the past.

NEW YORK IS MARATHON MAD
Fans Drop All Kinds of Sports to Watch
Hayes and Durando Race on Track.

New York seems to have gone mad about the great fight between the two boxers, Durando and Hayes. Their success as box office magnets has set the fastest amateurs to thinking, and just now the most thoughtful of the Marathon runners is the redskin, Tom Longboat. He is willing to turn "professional" if Durando will meet him. And Durando will meet him. And Durando will meet him.

He wants to make all the money that his nicely turned legs will allow, now that he has a line on the sweetest indoor winter. Harry Vothok is ready to make the match, and as a grand finale he will hang up a $10,000 purse for a free-for-all, to include Hayes, Durando, Longboat, Shrubbs, Crowley, Tewanning and several others who profess to have beaten Durando's time.

Crowley seems to be the dark horse of the entire bunch. His remarkable run over the Yonkers Marathon course Thanksgiving Day made him the winner of the greatest Marathon ever run on this side of the world. He played through twenty-five and a half miles of mud and slush, and when he passed the judges' stand at the Empire City track he was literally covered with mud, which entirely obscured the emblem on his breast. His time was 2:19, as against Durando's 2:44 for twenty-six miles and 385 yards, the regulation Marathon distance.

Scarcely five minutes' difference in the time, and Durando was running on a carefully prepared path.

HAL CHASE WILL RETURN TO NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—That Hal Chase will play again next season in an American League uniform is now regarded here as certain. Manager Sam Rice of the Yankees, who has been returning at his residence at Macoun, Ga., returned to this city today, and said that while in the South he had been negotiating with Chase, and had secured a promise from the California first baseman to rejoin the "Yankees." Chase quit suddenly last season because he could not get along with Kid Elberfeld, and Stallings may get rid of Elberfeld, and Stallings may come out of club.

DISCRIMINATION IS ADMITTED IN COURTCoal Dealer Denies, However, Any Conspiracy With Others to Keep Up
Price of Fuel.

SALT LAKE, Utah, Dec. 2.—On the witness stand in the United States district court today, J. M. Moore, western sales agent for the Union Pacific Coal company and defendant in the case, admitted that he had cut off the coal supply of D. J. Sharp, a Salt Lake coal dealer, because Sharp insisted upon cutting the retail price of Wyoming coal to 10 cents a ton.

Moore, who, with Everett Buckingham, traffic manager of the Oregon Short Line, and others, is charged with conspiracy in restraint of trade, repudiated the suggestion of a conspiracy and defended his action toward Sharp by saying that the dealer had violated the conditions under which the coal was sold to him and that his actions tended to disarrange the tariff schedules of the coal company.

During the trial of the case, the defense has confined its efforts to disproving the alleged conspiracy and has not taken occasion to deny the claim that discrimination was practiced against Sharp solely because he sold coal for less than competing dealers.

A Mexican about 35 years old, who came here from Mexico recently, also died today of the disease. Orrego walked all the way from his home in Mexico in great distress from the disease, of which he did not know the deadly nature until examined by the county physicians. He was sent to the hospital on November 20th.

Still another case of leprosy is at the county hospital. It is that of Antonio Mora, a Mexican who also came here recently from his native country. The authorities have been considerably perplexed to know what to do with the victim of leprosy who came here from Mexico.

ter Getting Off Well.

OAKLAND, Dec. 2.—Well played horses were successful at Emeryville today, but the bookies had an unprofitable session. POP FLIES JOKE
WITH BALL PLAYERSMembers of White Sox Club
Josh Each Other.Player Would Just as Soon
Strike Out as Knock a
"Tip-Up."

Frank Isbell of the Chicago White Sox, who is now part owner of the Wichita, Kansas, team of the Western Association, dropped off at the major league meeting in Chicago a remark why the rest of the members of Cumiskey's club always use a certain expression after hitting up a pop fly. "Lassy" did not report to the White Sox last spring, but stayed at home and whipped his Western League youngsters into shape. To do this he arranged games with some of the independent teams around Wichita.

In one of these games on foreign territory Isbell and his men, on arriving at the grounds, noticed a fan who, at the time the players entered the field, was the sole occupant of the bleachers.

As subsequent events developed, this fan was considered quite a sport about town on account of the fact that he was always willing to wager a small sum of money on the results of the games the local teams played.

This day was no exception and "his nose" had down a few small wagers on the outcome of that day's game. The independent team showed unexpected strength, and for about seven innings held Isbell's team safe.

But the Wichita team managed to get a couple of men on bases, with no one out, in the eighth inning, and things looked blue. The next two men went out, leaving the runners anchored on the bases.

This considerable satisfaction to prevail among the supporters of the home team. The player who was next to bat was a left-handed hitter and, naturally, the opposing left fielder played in close.

The Wichita slugger managed to get hold of a fast one and drove it a mile over the left fielder's head, scaring the two runs and pulling up at third before the ball was relayed to the infield.

Naturally the home rooters were as quiet as church mice at that, when the fan promised to deliver himself, which he did, he was heard all over the field.

"There you go, you good-for-nothing outfielder, I knew you'd do something wrong. Why don't you play out when there's hard-hitters come up?" Xote the fan playing in for them little tippy-ups; the rooter exclaimed.

CATTLE STARVING
BY THE THOUSAND
Heavy Snow and Terrible Cold in Colorado Is Having Disastrous Effect on Ranges.

DENVER, Dec. 2.—Thousands of cattle on the ranges in Colorado are reported to be starving, with prospects that there will be an unprecedented loss to the cattle men during the winter which opened early and has caught the majority of stockmen unprepared. Feed is in short supply, and prohibitive prices in the range districts, may now bring $25 to $30 a ton in the Arkansas valley and first range districts.

In the park range district the first snow, which fell early in October, still covers the ranges and hundreds of cattle perished in the first storm. This number was increased to thousands in the storm of the last few days and the sickness is desperate. Cattle cannot be shipped because they are in poor condition and are not beef cattle.

Other persons have reported the same conditions all over the southern and western portions of the state. The temperature fell below zero last night generally east of the continental divide and caused suffering among the badly nourished range herds.

THAW EXTRADITION
UNDER ADVISEMENT

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 2.—Argument on the appeal from the decision of the U. S. court at Pittsburgh, which dismissed a writ of habeas corpus for Harry K. Thaw from Matteawan asylum to Pittsburgh to testify in bankruptcy proceedings, was concluded today in the U. S. circuit court of appeals.

Thaw's attorney, James H. Hays, contended that the action of Judge Young of Pittsburgh, dismissing a writ issued by another U. S. court, was irregular.

As a Bird Gardner, counsel for the state of New York, declared that Thaw was properly quashed and that the bankruptcy proceedings were without legal effect because Thaw had been adjudged insane. Mr. Gardner raised many legal points against the writ and asked the court to sustain the decision of Judge Young in dismissing the proceedings.

The court held the case under advisement. An early decision is expected.

PARIS, Dec. 2.—Princess De Broglie, who was married to Prince de San Francisco and later married S. B. Velt of Chicago, has begun divorce proceedings against her husband on the ground of desertion. She is seeking the return of her property and every right for herself and children of the better known cafes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The Princess De Broglie is well known in this city, where she formerly resided. She married the prince in Chicago in 1906, after obtaining a divorce from her first husband, S. B. Velt. The marriage was opposed by the father of the prince, who succeeded in having the divorce of the princess from Velt declared void by a French court. Following this action, the prince and princess were remarried under the French law. Afterward he is said to have abandoned his wife and child, charging the princess with unfaithfulness. She indignantly denied his allegations, and, being besieged by creditors, has been obliged to earn a living for herself and child.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 2.—Mud runners had an inning at Santa Anita park today and the winners were hard to locate. Proper, in the second race, was the only favorite to win.
